12/12/2018

The Office of Defense Coordination will host a visit by Texas A&M Bush School faculty leaders for LLNL personnel interested in participating in the upcoming National Security Affairs Program at the Bush School for Public and Government Service starting in June 2019.

The informational will take place on Monday, Dec. 17, from 1-2 p.m. in Bldg. 132, conference room A (unclassified area) and is open to all interested personnel.

This program has been ongoing for the past 11 years and provides an opportunity to take national security courses from the Bush School. Past participants in the program have used this experience to improve LLNL interactions with national security stakeholders in government -- including DoD, Congress and the White House.
